

AAPG PROWESS Committee and AAPG International Regions Committee Forum

Co-hosted by: AAPG Professional Women in Earth Sciences (PROWESS) and the International Regions Committee

Title: The Value of Diversity in Leadership: Global Perspectives

Date: Wednesday, 15 September, 2010

Time: 08:00–11:25

Location: South Building, Upper Level, Glen 203/204

Fee: Included with conference registration

Co-Chairs: G. Gillis and D. Cook

Forum Description:

Organizations recognize that diversity of thought contributes to innovation, and diversity among employees helps make that happen. In this forum a dynamic group of international speakers will review and discuss the experiences of companies in discovering and documenting the added value of cultural and gender diversity in their leadership ranks. In addition, speakers and attendees will discuss the obstacles to having diverse leadership and the means to overcome these obstacles. Panelists from each of the AAPG Regions will present a wide range of views. This forum will be convened jointly by PROWESS and the International Regions committee.
